

Handbag Designer Jenny Yuen Presents Latest Collection – Fall/Winter 2008

New York, New York, United States, 10/29/2008 – Handbag designer Jenny Yuen introduces an upscale Fall/Winter 2008 line featuring avant-garde yet enduring handbag designs in a collaboration of lush suede and calfskin.

After two seasons of producing bags of quirky patterns and bold, bright colors, Jenny Yuen's new collection features structured shapes with stronger lines and vibrant but muted color schemes. This season's handbags reiterate the designer's successful combination of high-end design and modern functionality. The Fall/Winter 08 line features multiple interior pockets, the highest quality leather, hardware, and unique detailing of hand-sketched illustrations.

Inspired by film noir and grunge music, Jenny Yuen incorporated texture and prints imbued with whimsy, intrigue, and fantasy. Decidedly classic, this season's bags have a timeless, handsome quality à la Marlene Dietrich and Jeanne Moreau, ready to be the perfectly stylish partner in crime of the modern-day femme fatal.

The eponymous line is owned by Jenny Yuen, a New York-based designer who possesses a strong creative talent and energy that comes from a combined love of art, quality fashion designs, and a desire to always be challenged. Yuen is one of the most refreshing, up-and-coming handbag designers to grace the fashion and accessories market.

Jenny Yuen Fall/Winter 2008 collection is on display at jennywashere.com as well as in upscale boutiques across the United States and Japan. For more information, samples, photos, or ordering, call (212) 219-0208 or email shopkeeper@jennywashere.com.